yes only when VERY bored

i am now back in my country of birth, for which i have no special affinity due to the following (and see attached—it can be read in one minute, without full boredom—alright three minutes)

i am a Viet Nam War Vet but served for only one day—why?

i had had a mental breakdown the year before i graduated from Harvard which rendered me unfit for military service under ANY conditions—even if the Russians were coming over the next hill so i said, fuck you too—i owe you nothing including of course Taxes—and since i have sufficient Jewish mathematical genes and meticulous training from several non-Jewish Harvard professors plus presently a very forgiving Jewish accountant, i pay close to the bare minimum, which of course is zero in haste, all best

Hello Robert

It was really enjoying meeting and talking to you,

I am back in the República Dominicana, didn't see much of Jamaica yet.

Seems a little bit different from here.

I am going to read your theories when i will got some time (and when i will be very bored..)

See you,

Elad

Elad

it was a joy to meet you i think we are kindred spirits—genes and politics included !

here is a photo of what we Jamaicans like to do in the late afternoon he is the biggest green lizard in my backyard and she his favourite mate (green lizards sex for ~25 minutes)

maybe i have studied—and now watched them—too long—she seems REAL attractive to me

Dom Rep has 3 giants, Cuba 5, Jamaica and Puerto Rico one each in great haste—i leave for the US tomorrow for 3+ weeks of work
